Sault Ste. Marie was established in 1668 on the eastern shores of Lake Superior and along St. Mary's River as a permanent settlement, making it the oldest city in Michigan. In the mid to late 1700’s, the French and British often fought over the area. Usually, the conflicts were over British trade with the Native Americans. Both countries flew their respective flags over our city more than once.

The world-famous Soo Locks are still an engineering marvel and a source of great pride for citizens of the city.

Sault Ste. Marie offers much appeal to many - from vacationing families looking to see the sights to history buffs tracing the early history of the Great Lakes region. City attractions include the Soo Locks Boat Tours, Museum Ship Valley Camp, the Tower of History and the River of History Museum.

BRIMLEY
Located on Whitefish Bay, Brimley offers great hunting, fishing, camping, hiking, snow-mobiling, sightseeing, and events such as the annual Superior Whitefish Festival in Bay Mills. Brimley is located in Chippewa County along Lake Superior on Whitefish Bay. Within the Bay Mills Indian community, you can enjoy camping, lodging, restaurants, golfing, casino gaming at the Bay Mills Resort & Casino and the Kings Club Casino.

PARADISE
Paradise comes to life mid-March as the snow begins to melt and birds and bird watchers arrive. The spring migration lasts about two months and is monitored at the Whitefish Point Bird Observatory. The area is one of the best places for blueberries and the Blueberry Festival in Mid-August is great fun. Autumn brings a beautiful burst of fall colors as trees turn their vibrant shades of red and orange. Cranberries are ready to be picked at the 100 year old Cranberry Farm. Visit Whitefish Point Lighthouse, one of the first lighthouses to guide the mariners as they ventured out onto Lake Superior. The Great Lakes Shipwreck Museum is located by the Lighthouse and here you can see the bell from the Edmund Fitzgerald plus other interesting exhibits.

KEWEENAW PENINSULA
Known as “The Copper Country” the area has a colorful history in copper mining and the immigrants that settled here.
Your Keweenaw adventure might begin or end on Hwy. 26 or U.S. 41. Coming north on 26, you will travel through a wooded countryside dotted with historic mining villages such as South Range. If your route takes you north on US Hwy. 41, you will go through the small village of Chassell, situated along the shores of Portage Lake. Both routes lead you to Houghton, named after Douglas Houghton who confirmed the existence of copper on the peninsula.

The twin cities of Houghton and Hancock, built on opposing hillsides that rim the Portage Lake, are joined by the famous Portage Lift Bridge that spans the canal. Marinas, lodging facilities, and private homes line the waterway, a popular spot for summertime watersports. Extend your adventure with a trip to Isle Royale National Park. The Keweenaw Water Trail, a canoe and kayak route, traverses over 100 miles of Lake Superior and the Portage Waterway.

The entire area is the place for those interested in history. Many communities have museums that tell the story of the Copper Country and provide informative walking tours. The Houghton County Museum in Lake Linden offers a campus of artifacts to view. A visit to Seaman Mineral Museum on Sharon Avenue in Houghton is a must for those interested in the unique geology of the Peninsula. As you leave Hancock, heading north, you will see an historic mine shaft building and the Quincy Mine Hoist. Trained hosts give guided tours including an exciting cograil tram ride into an actual mine shaft.

Traveling further up the peninsula you can choose between routes that will encounter the quaint communities of Eagle River and Eagle Harbor with their sandy beaches, ghost towns, and opportunities for mountain biking, for hiking, for birdwatching, and for swimming or diving in the refreshing waters of the majestic Lake Superior. At the end of US 41 you will find the resort town of Copper Harbor, Fort Wilkins State Park, and the Copper Harbor Light Station. GOGBIC COUNTY

The Gogebic Range communities of Ironwood, Bessemer, and Wakefield in Michigan were all founded in the late 1880's upon the discovery of one of the richest iron ore bodies in the Lake Superior basin.

If you are a history buff, plan to visit such places as the Ironwood Historical Museum in the Old Railroad Depot, the Bessemer Heritage Center, and the Wakefield Historical Museum.

No circle tour would be complete without a visit to Copper Peak, the only ski flying facility in the Western Hemisphere. Take an adventure ride on the 36-story, 800-foot chair lift, and the 18-story elevator to the main observation deck. Walk the 8-story stairwell to the very top of the world's largest ski flying ramp where the panoramic view is awesome.

Continue north 5 miles on Cty 513 to Black River Harbor for deep sea fishing for trout and salmon, boating, kayaking, swimming, picnicking or just a leisurely walk along the river basin.

Enjoy a hearty meal at the many high-quality restaurants, and an overnight stay at the numerous motels and B&B's. You will find numerous specialty gift and antique shops throughout the four communities.

In downtown Ironwood, visit Hiawatha, the world's tallest Indian; the famous Ironwood Theater, the Ironwood Memorial Building, a tribute to the Veterans of WWI; and the Carnegie Library, circa 1900.

In Bessemer visit the Gogebic County Court House, a unique iconic structure built of Bayfield (WI) sandstone in the late 1800's.

In the mining location in Ramsay, between Bessemer and Wakefield, see the Keystone Bridge, one of only several in the entire USA, which demonstrates how the Romans built their aqueducts. Further east on Old US2 in Wakefield is the Plymouth Mine, the only open pit iron ore mine on the entire Gogebic Iron Range.

Visit the jewel of the western U.P., Lake Gogebic, which straddles Ontonagon and Gogebic counties and two time zones. This is the largest inland lake in the U.P. so you'll never get crowded on this lake! With 36 miles of shoreline encompassing two county parks, one township park, one state park, as well as two DNRE boat ramps and multiple restaurants, lodging, cabins and private campgrounds there is something for everyone!

IRON COUNTY

HURLEY

The city of Hurley on the border with Michigan's Upper Peninsula made a name for itself as a wild and wooly outpost during the region's iron mining days in the late 1800’s. Today the town is best known for the glorious waterfalls that can be found nearby on the Montreal River, and for the great snowmobiling available throughout the area during the winter months. Although some of the wildest falls are only accessible by foot, the effort is always worth it.

Hurley’s 19th century county courthouse, listed on the National Register of Historic Places, has been turned into a museum devoted to the area's rich mining, logging and farming heritage.

Hurley is known as the snow capital of Wisconsin. Surrounded by alpine ski resorts, Nordic centers and the best snowmobile & ATV trail system in the Midwest, making it the perfect winter destination. Over 500 miles of groomed trails provide ample amounts of wintertime fun. The Montreal Trails, 15 km, pass by remnants of the Montreal mining operation. The Uller Trail with its 30 km and Krankala Spur with an additional 5 km surpass all others in scenic beauty. The trail winds through the Penokee Range to Montreal, with shorter spurs offering great scenery without the distance. The Cedar Trail in Gurney follows ravines and plateaus to Lake Superior.

Hurley is also a magnet for skiers and snowboarders. Part of a unique microclimate that extends into Upper Michigan, Hurley often has deep snow cover even when the rest of the state has bare grass.

Iron County has 214 lakes with public access, providing fishing for walleye and musky and 136 miles of trout streams. Saxon Harbor on Lake Superior is a convenient launching point for private boats and home to many charter craft.

Visitors can discover real deep sea fishing right here in the Midwest.

Don’t miss Iron County’s great eateries, from authentic Italian cuisine and great grilled steaks to savory burgers at local pubs that just can’t be matched by the chain outfits. Iron County also has some great choices when it comes to places to stay, including some well-known chains, fully furnished condominiums and house rentals.

HERBSTER
Billy Herbster was a logging camp cook with enough education to write letters for his camp companions. Letters were returned in care of Billy Herbster and the name stuck long enough to establish a post office. The tiny hamlet of Herbster on Hwy. 13 continues a tradition of hospitality and community involvement.

Visitors will enjoy the historic legacy as well as great natural history. A town icon is the Log Gymnasium. Built in 1940 and restored in the 1990's by the Herbster Community Club, the "Gym" is both a Town Hall and Community Center. The historic sawmill that provided the logs for the gym is still in operation. Casual walking tours include the old Cheese Factory building, remaining piers of the old dock for the mail ship America, the log cabin Post Office and several restored homes of early settlers.

From Lake Superior's south shore to the northern border of the Chequamegon-Nicolet National Forest, Herbster, and its political base - The Town of Clover, is filled with wonderful natural resources. Two Class A Trout Streams - the Bark River to the east and the famous Cranberry River - create valleys and vistas. The Bark River estuary is internationally recognized for its unique mixture of vegetation and wildlife. Small watercraft can be launched from the landing on Bark Bay Road to begin a quiet trip to the mouth of the Bark River. Along the way visitors may be treated to sensational views of birds and other wildlife. Heron, geese, ducks, eagles as well as many smaller species delight bird watchers. Sandhill crane nest nearby and may be seen in fields not far from the estuary. Deer are plentiful and bear wander about with sometimes regular routes.

Plan to stay in Herbster awhile. Gift shops, stores and restaurants will welcome you and provide stories and local lore. A motel and a shoreline resort provide overnight lodging. A highly popular campground on the shore of Lake Superior provides wonderful shore-side tent sites and RV sites with electrical hookups and a great view of the lake. At the westernmost tip of Lake Superior, Duluth is a palette of rich colors. You’ll discover deep plums and shimmering golds in our cobbled streets, stunning mansions and engaging museums. Beautiful purples and oranges in our sunsets. And at the center of it all, a city in steeped in green.

Duluth blends with nature like no other city in the world, and it’s a perfect fit for those seeking an eco-friendly getaway. In Duluth, you're always mere minutes from greenspace. You can explore more than 11,000 acres of open and wooded land within city limits—that's more greenspace than any other American city! You can hike, bike or backpack miles of trails adorned with majestic forests, cascading waterfalls and breathtaking streams. And you can get up close to wildlife - from eagles at Hawk Ridge to whitetail deer and grey fox in the Superior National Forest.

With so many trails covering any terrain you fancy, the biggest challenge in Duluth is figuring out where to start. The Superior Hiking Trail, one of Reader's Digest's "Five Walks to Remember," now bisects the city of Duluth, providing breathtaking views of the lake. This 200+ mile trail stretching north to the Canadian border, draws tens of thousands people each year.

The Willard Munger State Trail runs 60 miles from Duluth to Hinckley, and is the longest paved path in the United States. Near the Munger’s trailhead in West Duluth, you’ll also find the Spirit Mountain Recreation Area, which offers an array of terrain for mountain bikers.

Lake Superior is part of everything we do here, and it’s one of the most compelling reasons to visit. From nearly any point in the city, you'll have a lake view. Our city's most famous landmark, the Aerial Lift Bridge, welcomes more than 1,000 ships into port every year. Originally built in 1905, it was upgraded in 1929 to the design you see today. Spend an afternoon on the pier, and you’ll see everything from sailboats to 1,000-foot freighters pass underneath.

Why settle for the shoreline when you can get out there - and get an entirely different view of the water? Rent a canoe or kayak and take a paddle along the North Shore, with its splendid rocky cliffs and lush greenery. For a taste of Lake Superior, charter a boat – you could reel in trout, walleye, and delicious swimmers. Visit Duluth 1-800-4-duluth or visitduluth.com

FIRST FLOOR IS SMOKE-FREE!
Two Harbors is a bustling harbor community with a wonderful blend of past and present. Witness the 1,000-foot ore boats arrive in Agate Bay from April to January, navigating into port to load with taconite - walk out onto the break-wall for a unique and close up ship-watching view! On the waterfront you will find the Two Harbors Lighthouse, the oldest continuously operating lighthouse in Minnesota. The living quarters now operate as a bed and breakfast, and the lighthouse tower and grounds are open for tours from May through October.

Overlooking the bay is the Duluth and Iron Range Depot, home to the Lake County Historical Society and the Depot Museum. The museum interprets a glorious era gone by, when Two Harbors was the busiest port and transportation hub north of Duluth and when iron ore, timber, and fishing were in their heyday. It is also the site of the final scene in Disney's production of "Iron Will."

On display outside of the Depot Museum are historic locomotives such as the Three Spot and Mallet 229, which represent the first and last in the evolution of the steam locomotive on the Minnesota Iron Range. Docked on the inner portion of Agate Bay near the Depot Museum is the Edna G, the last coal-fired steam tugboat on the Great Lakes.

Two Harbors is home to one of the most popular craft breweries in the state, award-winning restaurants, and unique shops. Experience genuine small-town hospitality at one of the many lodging facilities, from campgrounds to cabins and resorts, rustic to luxurious.

Two Harbors attracts thousands of visitors for its annual festivals. Two Harbors Heritage Days is a 4-day event in July with fun and activities for all ages: craft booths, largest parade on the North Shore, street dance, classic car show, and more. You might even find yourself in a lutefisk toss if you’re not careful! Also in July is Chalk.a.Lot, a sidewalk chalk festival – try your hand at some chalk art or just wander the street to view the artwork.

If snow is more your style, visit in February for the Winter Frolic, with a vintage snowmobile ride, snow sculptures, winter t-ball, sliding hill, scavenger hunt, and live music.

Two Harbors has miles of scenic trails to bike, hike, ski, snowmobile, or ATV, and has two of the most visited state parks in Minnesota just a 20-minute drive away. Whatever your day’s adventure may be, make Two Harbors a destination on the North Shore and you'll be sure to experience fun and hometown hospitality! Before GPS there was a really big light! Split Rock Lighthouse Historic Site, a Minnesota state historic site, operated by the Minnesota Historical Society, is nestled on 25 acres within Split Rock Lighthouse State Park, 20 miles northeast of Two Harbors. The historic site offers guided tours, costumed interpreters in the lighthouse and a restored keeper’s home, as well as a visitor center with exhibits, a 14-minute film on the history of the station and a museum store. With annual visitation of 150,000 it truly is a must see on the North Shore. Active from 1910 until 1969, Split Rock Light Station has a rich history. It was built in response to a November 1905 storm which claimed 29 ships and several lives. Split Rock Lighthouse stands as a testament to the power of Lake Superior as one of “the most dangerous piece of water in the world.”

SILVER BAY

Silver Bay is known for its amazing trail systems – Gitchi Gami Bike Trail, Superior National Hiking Trail, cross-country ski trails, well-groomed ATV and Snowmobile, and the Lake Superior Kayak Safe Harbor. Silver Bay also boasts a beautiful 9-hole scenic and challenging golf course, a full service Marina with over 100 slips, and will soon be home to a municipal campground. Silver Bay is also the access point to the Superior National Forest Scenic Byway, the shortest route between Lake Superior and the Iron Range, and is the only community centrally located between four major state parks including the historic Split Rock Lighthouse just a few miles away. Schroeder

This small community was named for John Schroeder, a lumber baron, who in 1895, started the Schroeder Lumber Company near the Cross River. It was once one of the largest lumber retailers in the United States! The nearby camp had a reputation for good living conditions, fair wages, and good food. The camp operated until 1905, when other competitive logging operations opened throughout Minnesota, Canada, and Wisconsin.

The Cross River Heritage Center is the place to visit to experience local heritage and culture and art featuring the works of local artists and artisans. Celebrate the contributions of the early loggers during the annual John Schroeder Days. And, at mile marker 78, visit Father Baraga’s Cross, a tribute to the “snowshoe priest” who administered to the Ojibwa during the early 1800’s. During the measles outbreak in the 1840’s, Father Baraga was actively involved with assisting the first nation’s people and relocating them away from the epidemic. During a storm in 1846, his boat was safely washed ashore at the mouth of the Cross River. In thanks, he placed a cross there, which has since been replaced with a stately cross made of granite. Tofte

Tofte is a lovely harbor community nestled on the beautiful and rugged shore of Lake Superior on a rocky outcropping called Bluefin Bay.

John and Andrew Tofte and brother-in-law, Hans Engelson, first came to Lake Superior’s North Shore in search of a place which looked like home. Their quest had ended when they first saw Rock Point and Bluefin Bay. They staked their claim and soon established themselves as commercial fishermen, just as they had in Norway.

Their first trips proved so successful that they set about building the twin fish houses, one side for Hans and the other for John and Andrew. Fish from Lake Superior were always fresh and delicious and soon these fishermen were sending their catch to market in Duluth, the Twin Cities and even Chicago. Lake Superior trout and bluefin became famous for their unique taste and freshness. The Twin Fish house was replaced long ago by Tommy Hanson’s Edgewater Resort, now the striking Bluefin Bay Family of Resorts.

The area boasts an excellent network of trails: the Superior Hiking Trail in the summer, and Nordic ski trails maintained by the Sugarbush Trail Association. The charming Tofte town park is nestled along the shoreline, just off Highway 61, and is a perfect place for a picnic!

Temperance River State Park features lovely trails along the dramatic Temperance River Gorge. The newly constructed Gitch-Gami State Trail bicycle trail offers a family-friendly paved trail that stretched for 11 miles along the shore of Lake Superior.

Be sure to visit the Visitor Tofte Information Center in the NorthShore Commercial Fishing Museum for maps and brochures on businesses, attractions and lodging. The knowledgeable staff is always ready to answer questions about the area.

The North Shore Commercial Fishing Museum is a wonderful stop to explore the lives and livelihood of the early North Shore fishing families! It includes artifacts like an original Mackinaw sailboat, net winders, splitting tables and shipping boxes. Through audio and video exhibits, fishermen who worked the shore, tell their stories. Visit Cook County also has an information center in the museum, and in the summer, our friendly team members will let you know the best place to land a walleye, or where to go for a great cup of coffee! The area has become a melting pot for creativity, arts & culture, foodies, live music and entrepreneurial ideas. With dozens of new businesses, the Waterfront District is where both locals and visitors come to find one-of-a-kind shopping, food and entertainment experiences. The Waterfront District promotes itself as the place to Live Outside the Box. The catchy slogan is not only about the area’s stunning location alongside Lake Superior. It speaks to the downtown’s best asset – its locally-owned businesses.

“The Waterfront District is a destination where you can walk outside, smell, taste and experience real life away from the big box stores and chain franchises,” said Jim Comuzzi, Chairman of the Waterfront District BIA. “This area is a vibrant and welcoming community hub to discover unique products, services and experiences that you won't find anywhere else in the world.” From clothing retailers, beauty stores, sporting goods, antiques and collectibles, to boutique hotels, award-winning restaurants, trendy coffee bars, guided tours and local artisans - and everything in between - the Waterfront District always has something new to enjoy. ARMSTRONG
At the northern end of the Spruce River Highway (Hwy. 527, a beautiful three-hour drive north of Thunder Bay is the community of Armstrong. There is nothing north of Armstrong but forests and lakes, a few fly-in aboriginal villages, Hudson Bay, and the North Pole! Armstrong is a center for wilderness tourism, as well as most of the services you might need, including two restaurants, fuel, groceries, and a liquor store. There are two year-round motels. Accommodations in the spring, summer, and fall also include housekeeping cabins, deluxe lodges, one ecotourism centre, and one wilderness B&B. Armstrong is famous for high quality wilderness fishing, canoeing, and moose hunts. You can take either a floatplane or VIA rail to remote outposts where you will have your own lake to yourself! Armstrong is also the Gateway to Wabakimi Provincial Park. Wabakimi, created in 1983 and hugely expanded in 1999, is the world's largest wilderness canoeing reserve, with thousands of lakes and dozens of rivers. Despite that, it is little known, with only a few hundred paddlers annually. There are also a number of fly-in and train-in outposts in and around Wabakimi.

SHUNIAH - ONTARIO’S AMETHYST COUNTRY
From delicate lavender to rich midnight hues, the amethyst of northwestern Ontario is a treasure of purple. These semi-precious gemstones are found in quantity only here and in six other countries in the world, but no other place on earth produces amethyst of such quality—and in such quantity. This is amethyst country, and you can take a piece of it home with you. Visit one or more of the area mines for a unique pick your-own gemstone adventure where you can choose your own specimen right from an open pit mine. Many of the local shops carry gift items and jewelry crafted from the gemstone. Because of its abundance in the northern areas of the province, amethyst was adopted as the official mineral of Ontario in 1975. Aside from the practical explanations for the formation of the gemstone, legends talk about the creation of the mineral deposits at Elbow Lake. Millions of years before the Sleeping Giant lay down on Thunder Cape, the great wine god Bacchus became angry with men and vowed to let his tigers destroy the first human they could catch. A beautiful princess named Amethyst was traveling from Thunder Bay's shore to worship at the shrine of Diana on the highest hilltop. Hearing the tigers roar, she climbed up to Elbow Lake hoping to escape by canoe. Finding none, she climbed into a nearby crystal
Ouimet is located in Dorion, Ontario and is 64 km (40 mi) east of Thunder Bay, north of Highway 11-17. This amazing geological feature was formed by the forces of ice, wind and rain chiseling away rocks through time. The canyon measures a full three km (1.9 mi) in length 152 meters (500 ft) across with 107 meter (361 ft) vertical cliffs. Hidden beneath the boulders on the canyon floor are rare Arctic flora; typically found 1,000 km (621 mi) to the north. The one km (0.62 mi) barrier free trail takes visitors to two viewing pods overlooking the canyon. Sheer vertical cliffs and unique rock columns, near the south wall make Ouimet a photographer’s delight. Day use only (mid-May to mid-Oct.). An entrance fee donation can be made to assist with park operations. 807-977-2526 OntarioParks.com

Red Rock is known for its hospitality, scenic vistas and outdoor recreation. Water sports and recreation are at the heart of the community with the expanded marina facilities. Dave, the owner/operator of Superior Outfitters, and Nicole, the Parks Canada guide, soon had us packed for the journey. At this moment, what we were about to do hit home. On a beautiful warm, summer morning, we were about to paddle into the open waters of the Lake Superior National Marine Conservation Area. Paddling beyond Nicol Island, we paused as our guides shared stories of the lake and local history.

The view from the water makes you notice things you wouldn’t from shore. It sparks your curiosity. What was life here like before the road and rail came through? How did fish that should be in the Pacific Ocean end up here? What other secrets lie beneath the waves? Good storytellers have a way of sparking interests we didn’t know we had. My mind swirling, our adventure continued.

As we approached Healy Island, we saw a beautiful sandy beach, where we landed and began to explore. What a paradise!

Despite living near “the big lake” most of my life, I had never been on the water by kayak, so this new offer by Parks Canada in 2019 inspired me to try something new! It began in the picturesque lakeside village of Rossport, learning how to board our kayaks. Once sitting and steady in our tandem boat, we paddled around the dock to get a feel for it.

Here we had our delicious lunch, which had been packed by the Serendipity Café, a regional favorite. The views of Superior were spectacular. We took photos to share with friends, many of whom I suspect will take a trip like this in the future.

Parks Canada offers many unique programs for all ages and interests. They can help you discover the beauty and history of Lake Superior National Marine Conservation Area and the surrounding region. For more information on all their programs, visit parkscanada.gc.ca/lsmnca-activities

ROSSPORT

One of Canada’s most spectacular drives is along the North Shore of Lake Superior and one of its hidden gems is the picturesque village of Rossport, once a bustling fishing port and whistle stop on the railway. Peacefully nestled in a protected harbour, the village overlooks the largest island archipelago on Lake Superior and is a gateway to Parks Canada’s National Marine Conservation Area. The proximity of the islands offers a safe haven for kayakers, sailors, and boaters. Visitors can explore the nearby islands or venture out to the lighthouse by sea kayak or on a guided boat tour. For those who enjoy camping, Rainbow Falls Provincial Park offers two locations with full amenities, hiking and trails. The Casque Isles Hiking Trail begins in the village. Rossport offers year-round accommodations, and gourmet dining overlooking the harbour. Seasonally, one can find patio dining, unique gift shops, local pottery and the work of other local artisans. For a change of pace with unparalleled peacefulness, serenity, and beauty, come experience the mystery of Gitchi Gumi. Rosport - the Canadian North Shore’s best kept secret.

A Day on the Edge – Start your day at the Bridgeview Lookout and a spectacular view of Lake Helen, the Nipigon River Bridge, the marina and beyond. Ready for a hike? Hit one of five area hiking trails. Mazukama Falls, just 20 km. east, rewards your black diamond climb with a 65-foot cascading waterfall. Hungry? Enjoy a bowl of steaming soup and a fresh sandwich on a bistro deck overlooking the Nipigon River. Ready to shop? Follow the urban Portage Trail and browse the stores and galleries to discover unique pieces created by local artisans. Stop by the museum and learn about Nipigon’s world record brook trout! It’s time to relax at the Paddle to the Sea Park and Splash Pad. Follow the stations telling the story of an Indigenous child dreaming of travelling from Nipigon through the Great Lakes to the ocean! You come to the final station of the journey at the Nipigon Marina, where the lagoon boardwalks await. The longest, Turtle Point, stretches several feet into the lagoon. Here you see three painted turtles basking, and five varieties of waterfowl. Look! A fish just jumped! It’s just another day exploring Nipigon’s natural edge.

Only a day in Terrace Bay? It’s surely not enough, but it’s still possible to get the most out of your day. The rule of thumb is to visit Terrace Bay’s Superior Six. Begin your day by enjoying a bird’s eye view of the town and Lake Superior from atop the 50-foot Terrace Bay Lighthouse. Next, with just a short drive to 100-foot Aguasabon Falls and Gorge, be amazed by its ferocity in the spring and its serenity in the summer. It is a sight to behold and a definite check off a visitor’s bucket list. It’s time to stop for lunch or just to relax at the Aguasabon Golf Course’s upper patio. If time permits, enjoy an entertaining golf experience along majestic Lake Superior. Head down to the Terrace Bay Beach to view Lower Aguasabon Falls, start a hike at the trailhead to the Casque Isles Trail, or take a charter boat to the Slate Islands Provincial Park for caribou viewing, fishing, and wildlife photographing. As night falls, while one could camp under the Milky Way on the island, less adventurous travellers can enjoy a delicious dinner at one of the local restaurants and finish the day off with a good sleep at Drifter’s or the Red Dog Inn.

Nipigon is nestled in the breathtaking landscape of cliffs and red sibley rock surrounding the mighty Nipigon River. Located at the headwaters of Lake Superior, Nipigon has a wealth of activities to offer all ages. If you are looking to experience the true Canadian wilderness in all seasons, Nipigon’s alpine landscapes and trails create a winter wonderland for snowmobiling, cross-country skiing, and snowshoeing. In summer, festivals and fishing derbies offer fun family entertainment, and hiking trails wait to be explored. Nipigon’s sheltered rivers, bays and islands are a paradise for boating, fishing and kayaking. Experienced local outfitters provide guided outdoor adventures to visitors all year round. The Bridgeview Lookout Tower, built in 2018, is located just west of the new Nipigon River Bridge, on Railway St. Climb 65 steps up this 40 foot structure to be rewarded with 360 degree view from Lake Helen, to the Nipigon River Bridge, to the Marina and beyond.

Nipigon's Paddle-To-The-Sea Park brings a classic Canadian story to life for kids. Starting at the Lake Superior waterfall in the heart of downtown Nipigon, twelve playground stations lead families on a journey of fun through the Great Lakes. Bill Mason’s Oscar-nominated film is a famous retelling of the story of Paddle-to-the-Sea, originally written by Holling C. Holling in 1942.

Nipigon River Recreational Trail connects the towns of Nipigon and Red Rock over 10 km of varied terrain including diabase cliffs and a rare coastal wetland. Take time to enjoy the breathtaking, panoramic views of Nipigon Bay and its islands including the spectacular Eagle's Ridge lookout. Hiking the whole trail one way can take three hours at a moderate pace. Hikers generally start at the Red Rock entrance, and will need to arrange for a ride back to their starting point.

Some of Canada’s most impressive freshwater fishing action starts on the Nipigon lakes and rivers every spring. The world-record brook trout was caught in the Nipigon River by Dr. J.W. Cook in 1915, weighing an amazing 14.5 pounds. It's easy for both new and seasoned anglers to get hooked on the quantity and size of the Nipigon catch. This is where you'll still find some of the biggest brook trout in the world as well as walleye, salmon, and lake trout.

If you don't have a boat or gear, visit the Natural Edge Ecopark Campground & Marina Office to borrow some rods, and head to the new fishing docks in the lagoon. The Campground and Marina is situated on Nipigon’s scenic waterfront. It is North America’s first Official Tentsile Experience, offering 15 Tentsile Tree tent premium campsites. Camp in the trees, pitch your own tent, or park your RV and soak in Nipigon’s Natural Edge.1-877 596-1359 or 807-887-3135 nipigon.net

LAKE HELEN RESERVE
The Lake Helen Reserve is approximately 1/4 mile from the junction of Highway 11/17 just past the Nipigon River Bridge, nestled beside the pristine Mission Bay of Lake Helen. The reservation is governed by the Ojibway First Nation, Red Rock Indian Band. They host an annual traditional Pow Wow every 3rd weekend in July. The ritual of these traditions is shared through music, dance, and regalia and are a beautiful expression of Indigenous spirituality, history and culture. Pelletier’s Gas Bar and Native Art Gallery offers conveniences and authentic, handcrafted native art. The Lake Helen Reserve is also the location of the historic Saint Sylvester’s Church built in 1877. The first recorded burial was October 3rd 1880. Although a historical landmark, the Church is no longer used as the building structure is unsafe but respectful photos and viewing are welcome from outside the building. Visit rrib.ca 1-877-887-2510

Each year, the Festival presents a new theme, sure to add to the fun-filled event. Past themes have included “Winnie The Pooh’s Looks to the Future”, “Winnie The Pooh Goes to Vegas”, and “Winnie the Pooh Goes Hawaiian”. A parade, trade show, dance, arts and crafts show, fireworks display, games and competitions, and superb entertainment are all a part of the weekend festival. Don’t miss it! WAWA

STAMP REMINDER

Remember to get your stamp here to receive your official Lake Superior Circle Tour Certificate. Please see pg 3 for additional details.

Wawa is located on the northern shoreline of Lake Superior with just a 2.5 hour drive north of Sault Ste. Marie. The drive on the Trans-Canada Highway follows the rugged Lake Superior shore closely and affords some views that are nothing short of spectacular. Visitors to the Wawa area are captured by its natural beauty. It’s a great place to just enjoy nature’s beautiful waterfalls, natural beaches along Lake Superior and Wawa Lake, meandering trails, lakesides, and old heritage sites without any particular agenda. The Wawa area is also a unique paddling destination. Located between Lake Superior Provincial Park and Pukaskwa National Park, paddlers can take in the most remote section of Lake Superior coastline. Rivers and inland lakes are also plentiful with many paddling experiences, as well as great opportunities for wildlife viewing, camping, fishing and discovering secrets of years gone by when logging dominated Lake Superior’s shores.

The “Signs of History” and “Heritage Doors” provide a great touring opportunity for visitors to take in the story of Wawa’s early beginnings and meet some of the people who have shaped the history of Wawa.
Silver Falls and Scenic High Falls are two signature sites that most visitors do not want to miss. In fact, one of the best days a visitor could spend in Wawa is relaxing beside one of the many waterfalls or beautiful waterfront parks. Lion’s Waterfront Park and Rose’s Beach have stunning sun rises and accessible beaches to spend the day on. Wawa Tourism 1-800-367-9292. ext. 260 or visit experiencewawa.com

AGAWA ROCK
PICTOGRAPHS

Eight kilometres north of Agawa Bay, a sign directs visitors to Agawa Rock, site of a fascinating assembly of ancient rock paintings. A short scenic hiking trail leads to Agawa Rock, a cliff face rising 30 meters above Lake Superior and decorated by 35 pictographs; many are centuries old. When viewing the paintings, visitors are reminded to exercise caution - the Pictographs are only accessible when Lake Superior is calm. Agawa Rock is an ancient site; please do not touch the Pictographs. Be sure to wear hiking boots or heavy tread shoes. The trail is open from mid-May to mid-September.

PANCAKE BAY
PROVINCIAL PARK

The park is located 76 km (47 mi) northwest of Sault Ste. Marie and features 309 campsites of which 70 are electrical sites. A nature trail, amphitheatre, playground, comfort stations with showers and a beautiful sand beach are among the park’s features. Stop for a swim or stay overnight to see the spectacular sunset over Pancake Bay. The park has five yurts as well as five group campsites available which can be rented throughout the operating season. Hike the Edmund Fitzgerald Lookout Trail 7-14 km (9 mi.) for an incredible view of Lake Superior. The park is open from early May to mid-October.

BATCHAWANA BAY
PROVINCIAL PARK

Batchawana Bay Provincial Park, with its scenic views and nice sandy beach, is a great place to take a break on your way either east or west. The bay is relatively shallow and attracts many locals during the summer who enjoy a refreshing swim in Lake Superior. The Batchawana Bay Tourist Centre operates a washroom facility with flush toilets in the park year-round. The region also offers sport fishing for many species, including lake trout, salmon, speckled trout, walleye, northern pike, bass and perch. Boat launching is available at Harmony Beach and the Batchawana Village Pier. Operates throughout the summer months. Fees are applicable for day use visits.

Sault Ste. Marie is your base for a Northern Ontario adventure. Set along St. Marys River and the shorelines of both Lake Superior and Lake Huron, the opportunities for outdoor vacations are endless and world class. To access this scenic wilderness, you have the unique ability to travel north by train. The Agawa Canyon Tour Train leaves daily from early June until mid-October to the Agawa Canyon, a Canadian Signature Experience. City highlights include the Ermatinger-Clergue National Historic Site and Heritage Discovery Centre, the Art Gallery of Algoma, the Sault Ste. Marie Museum, Mill Market, Entomica and the Canadian Bushplane Heritage Centre. The Canadian Bushplane Heritage Centre received Trip Advisor's Award of Excellence for 2018. This 64,000 square foot interactive museum offers a look at the history of bush plane flying and fire fighting in Northern Canada. Enjoy the hands-on experience in the flight simulator, arcade games and 3 award winning movies including Wildfires! A firefighting adventure in 3D.

Sault Ste. Marie is a city designed to offer many different activities, from gentle adventure to bright lights and action such as Gateway Casinos Sault Ste. Marie. Walk the mile-long waterfront boardwalk and watch thousand-foot ships move through the world’s busiest lock system or see them up close at the Sault Ste. Marie Canal National Historic Site of Canada, at the most westerly point of land under the International Bridge.

Our community has a great legacy of hosting annual festivals and events such as ROTARYFEST, “The Sault's Summer Festival!” taking place in July; the Algoma Fall Festival in October timed to allow visitors to enjoy the magnificent fall foliage as well as world class arts and cultural entertainment; and the Bon Soo Winter Carnival in February.

Along the center of the waterfront boardwalk, you will find the Roberta Bondar Park, named after the city’s most famous hometown citizen and Canada’s first woman astronaut, Dr. Roberta Bondar. This area, historically known as Bawating or “meeting place”, provided a natural site for the First Nations to settle. The gathering of people continues today as locals and visitors come together to enjoy festivals, concerts and a variety of sporting events and entertainment at the GFL Memorial Gardens, located in downtown Sault Ste. Marie.
